

Dear Friends,

As many of you know, the Moon Festival (or Mid-Autumn) is a traditional holiday for all descendants of the Dragon to celebrate abundance in harvest and togetherness of family and friends. During this time of the year where moon is fullest and brightest, families and friends gather together for a warming meal, a delightful stroll while watching the children display their favorite lantern.

The Chinese Students and Scholars Association of the University of Maryland Baltimore would like to invite you to celebrate this spiritual holiday with us in a Moon Festival Party. There will be delicious Chinese food, inspiring Music and presentations, movie for all, amusing games and prizes, and featuring Moon Cake! Details are provided below which can also be found on our website.
