Coeus and Fringe Benefits

- If you are working on a proposal that has never been routed or copied
  - Go into the budget and click Edit > Rates (or click on the % icon) and sync the new rates
  - All of the new fringe benefit rates will be sync up to your salaries

- If you are working on a proposal that has already been routed and rejected, or if you have copied a previously approved proposal
  - Highlight each cost element and click on ITEMS > PERSONNEL BUDGET DETAILS (or click on Ironman icon) and delete all listed salary. Click okay & save your file.
  - You need to go into each budget year and do the same within each budgeted salary cost element.
  - After doing so, save your entire COEUS record. Go back to Period 1 and enter the salary cost elements and complete the Personnel budget details.
  - After completing period 1 and saving it, highlight the cost element, then click on ITEMS > APPLY TO LATER PERIODS to create the budget for this cost element through the rest of the periods listed.
  - OR you can create a whole new budget after syncing the rates as mentioned above for a new proposal
NIH Update – Just In Time (JIT) Process

- Most of us have been submitting JIT info electronically via the NIH Commons for quite some time.
  - Now (as of 4/20/12) it’s required for us to do so
  - The PI and/or Department Administrator should enter and/or upload JIT info into the Commons
  - When the info is ready for SPA review and submit, send an email to the SPA Team (or to the individual if it’s been previously assigned)
  - SPA will access the Commons to review and submit
NIH Update – Just In Time (JIT) Process

- Timing of submission
  - At least 60 days before the proposed project period start date (or sooner if requested by the IC)
  - If we don’t submit and they need the JIT, we will receive a request from the NIH

- Impact score of 40 or less will receive a standard notice and request for submitting JIT information
  - Note: Score of 40 doesn’t reflect any individual IC’s payline & will be re-evaluated by NIH along with funding environment in future
  - Automated E-mail to the PI 2 wks after release of score indicating the importance of beginning the JIT process, particularly the need to obtain any necessary IRB and IACUC approvals
NIH Update – Just In Time (JIT) Process

- JIT link will be active within 24 hours after the impact score has been released for ALL applications
  - This is different than NIH’s former practice of only opening the JIT link for applications receiving impact scores within a certain range.
- Since the JIT link will be available for all applications, we should NOT rely on existence of the link as an indicator of the need to submit JIT information.
- We will need to rely on the JIT notification email to the PI and/or any specific requests from NIH staff.
Getting Access to Computer Systems

- Coeus – Complete the on-line form under the “Forms” header at http://www.umaryland.edu/coeus/tools.html
- eSuRF – Email Colin Hunter chunter@umaryland.edu
- NIH Commons/NSF Fastlane
  - Email Colin Hunter chunter@umaryland.edu
  - If Colin is not available, Dennis or Amanda can help with NIH Commons and Dennis can help with NSF
  - Remember that new faculty need to be “Affiliated” to UMB if they have a user ID from their prior institution. Please take care of this as part of their transfer in, rather than waiting until it becomes urgent.
