

DID YOU KNOW?

Thirty-seven percent of the buildings at UMB are more than 100 years old! If all of UMB's buildings had to be replaced today, the cost would be more than $1.2 billion!

DID YOU KNOW?

The University of Maryland School of Medicine was established in 1807 and is the founding institution of the University System of Maryland (USM), the nation's 12th largest university system.

DID YOU KNOW?

The University's Southern Management Corporation Campus Center includes a ballroom with catering services, space for student groups and services, ecologically sensitive food venues, and state-of-the-art recreation and fitness facilities with a pool.

DID YOU KNOW?

You can receive the crime statistics for any campus in the country. Under the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act (see page 53), students can find out how safe a campus and its surrounding neighborhood are, along with other information.

DID YOU KNOW?

The deans of four of the University's schools are women. Two of them are African-American.

DID YOU KNOW?

Baltimore City Community College is moving its programs in biotechnology, environmental science, and arts and science transfer to the University of Maryland BioPark, where the college is creating a Life Sciences Institute.

DID YOU KNOW?

More than 6,000 students were enrolled at UMB in spring 2009—894 in undergraduate programs, 2,570 in graduate programs, and 2,632 in professional degree and certificate programs.

DID YOU KNOW?

As part of their tuition, all UMB students (except those in the evening law program) pay a student health fee that allows access to health care services provided by University of Maryland Family and Community Medicine, at 29 S. Paca St.

DID YOU KNOW?

The study space to the left of the Health Sciences and Human Services Library stairway doubles as an art gallery. The library has featured rotating exhibits since it opened in 1998, including paintings and photographs by local artists, health and science photographs from The Baltimore Sun archives, and paintings by teenage students at the Woodbourne Center in Baltimore.

DID YOU KNOW?

Students young and old, from near and far, and of all ethnicities attend classes at UMB. Our students' ages range from 18 to 66. The student body is 72 percent female, 36 percent minority, and 76 percent in-state. Those from outside Maryland represent 47 of the 50 U.S. states and 48 countries.

DID YOU KNOW?

The UMB campus has more than 60 buildings and covers 61 acres. There is more than 448,000 square feet of research laboratory space on campus.

DID YOU KNOW?

UMB's Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) course has received the Maryland Governor's Award of Merit. The self-defense course for women is taught by UMB police officers. For information, call 6-1408 or 6-6882.

DID YOU KNOW?

The School of Social Work provides a half million hours of social work services to the community.

DID YOU KNOW?

University faculty and researchers include world famous pioneers such as Robert Gallo, MD, whose findings identified HIV as the cause of AIDS, and Angela Brodie, PhD, whose work led to development of aromatase inhibitors, the most important breast cancer therapy used today.

DID YOU KNOW?

The UMB Caravan is one of several campus transportation services available for student use. See the Campus Transportation Guide on the UMB Web site for information.

DID YOU KNOW?

The School of Medicine's Professionalism Project helps students develop a caring and humanistic attitude toward patients. These students, who are recognized in a white coat ceremony, also receive a pin and membership in the Humanism Honor Society.

DID YOU KNOW?

The current nationwide pharmacist shortage has created a strong demand for School of Pharmacy graduates. Recent graduates received an average of four job offers with starting salaries in pharmacy practice of $85,000 to $110,000 per year, the average salary being $89,000. More than 55 percent of all graduates continue to live and work in Maryland.

DID YOU KNOW?

UMB is a part of the Baltimore Collegetown Network, a consortium of 15 regional colleges and universities promoting Baltimore as a student-friendly city. The network has improved interaction among campuses through the creation of a shuttle system and a Web site that enhances the visibility of the network's institutions and activities. Want to know where students can go for a snack at 3 a.m.? Or how to get the cheapest tickets to an O's game? Visit www.baltimorecollegetown.org.

DID YOU KNOW?

Students are elected annually to represent each professional school as senators in the University Student Government Association. And there are more than 100 school-based student organizations at UMB—check with your school for the current list.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Dental School is Maryland's pre-dominant provider of comprehensive and emergency oral health services for people of all ages. Each year, the School serves nearly 35,000 people through more than 122,000 patient visits.

DID YOU KNOW?

The School of Law has one of the best student-faculty ratios—12-to-1—in the country. Its Law and Health Care Program is consistently ranked among the top in the country by U.S. News and World Report.

DID YOU KNOW?

The School of Nursing's Living History Museum, on the second floor of the School of Nursing, is one of the only museums of its kind in the nation. Through hundreds of original nursing artifacts, historical photographs, letters, documents, and audio and video presentations, the museum traces the evolution of the School's mission in nursing education, research, and practice, from its early years as a hospital training program to its emergence as a premier professional school.

DID YOU KNOW?

Each year UMB faculty members, students, and staff provide more than 2 million hours of service throughout the state. UMB graduates make up a vast number of the state's practicing health care, human services, and legal professionals.