

Field Training Officers

417.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidelines for field training that ensure standardized training and evaluation; facilitate the transition from the academic setting to the actual performance of general law enforcement duties; and introduce the policies, procedures and operations of the University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Department. The policy addresses the administration of field training and the selection, supervision, training and responsibilities of the Field Training Officer (FTO) (COMAR 12.04.01.17(F)).

417.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Department that all newly hired or appointed officer trainees will participate in field training that is staffed and supervised by trained and qualified FTOs.

417.3 FIELD TRAINING

The University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Department shall establish minimum standards for field training, which shall be of sufficient duration to prepare officer trainees for law enforcement duties and be in compliance with state mandates related to field training (COMAR 12.04.01.17). The field training is designed to prepare trainees for a patrol assignment and ensure they acquire the skills needed to operate in a safe, productive and professional manner, in accordance with the general law enforcement duties of this department.

Field training (COMAR 12.04.01.17):

- (a) Shall include activities designed to familiarize the individual with the duties of the officer position, as defined and administered by this department.
- (b) May be conducted in conjunction with an entrance-level training program or a separate training activity provided by a law enforcement agency.
- (c) Shall be no less than the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commission (MPCTC)-required duration. The minimum duration requirement for lateral officers is 80 hours (2 weeks) and entry-level officers is 240 hours (6 weeks).
- (d) Shall be monitored by a certified officer, the Chief of Police or the authorized designee.
 1. Trainees shall be under the direct supervision of an FTO or other approved officer as provided in COMAR 12.04.01.17(G).
- (e) Should include procedures for:
 - (a) Issuance of training materials to each trainee at the beginning of their field training.
 - (b) Daily, weekly, and monthly evaluation and documentation of the trainee's performance.
 - (c) A multiphase structure that includes:

Field Training Officers

- (a) A formal evaluation progress report completed by the FTOs involved with the trainee and submitted to the FTO Coordinator and Education & Training Lieutenant.
- (b) Assignment of the trainee to a variety of shifts and geographical areas, if feasible.
- (c) Assignment of the trainee to a rotation of FTOs in order to provide for an objective evaluation of the trainee's performance, if feasible.
- (d) The trainee's confidential evaluation of their assigned FTOs and the field training process.
- (e) Retention of all field training documentation in the officer trainee's training file including (COMAR 12.04.01.17(H)):
 - (a) All performance evaluations.
 - (b) A certificate of completion certifying that the trainee has successfully completed the required number of field training hours.

417.4 FTO COORDINATOR

The Chief of Police shall delegate certain responsibilities to an FTO Coordinator. The FTO Coordinator has been designated as the Education & Training Lieutenant and will report directly to the Professional Standards Bureau Commander or authorized designee (COMAR 12.04.01.17(C)). If the Education & Training Lieutenant does not meet the minimum training requirements for the FTO Coordinator (see below training requirements), another member will be appointed as the FTO Coordinator by the Professional Standards Bureau Commander.

The FTO Coordinator may appoint an FTO Supervisor or other designee to assist in the coordination of FTOs and their activities.

The responsibilities of the FTO Coordinator include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Assignment of trainees to FTOs.
- (b) Conducting FTO meetings.
- (c) Maintaining and ensuring FTO and trainee performance evaluations are completed.
