Quantum One Go Live Training

Quantum One training is available now in Percipio, UMB's Learning Management System.

Training is structured into Learning Journeys for ease of use.

- A Percipio Learning Journey is a collection of training tasks, based on an Actor Role, such as School/Admin Unit HR Representative, that holds all learning requirements.
- Your Learning Journeys will be assigned to you and located in in Percipio Learning Library.

Navigating Your Quantum One Training

Tailored to Your Training Needs

Journeys are built based on system security access and responsibilities. You may have more than one journey.
Required Training

Complete all content in the Syllabus section to receive your security access at Go-Live. Once the content in the syllabus is complete, the journey is considered complete, and you may download a certificate.

Optional Resources

Content in the optional resource section are not required for your security access but may be relevant to your job duties and are strongly recommended.
Training Format

Your journey contains a mix of self-paced content and instructor-led courses. You must register for the instructor-led sessions. Review your journey early and register for all required session to secure your preferred schedule.
