Step into UMB's Past: Explore These Hidden Gems!

Join us for a rare opportunity to explore some of the most fascinating historical sites on the University of Maryland, Baltimore (UMB) campus.

JOSEPH U. DORSCH SR., BSP '39, PHARMACY MUSEUM

Discover rare bottles, vintage prescriptions, and historic artifacts that trace the legacy of pharmacy and the University of Maryland School of Pharmacy. Highlights include diplomas of Alpheus Sharp (1842) and Louis Dohme (1857), who co-founded the company Merck Sharp & Dohme.

HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS AT THE HSHSL

Explore the archives that tell UMB's story! This repository houses rare books and records from the Schools of Dentistry, Graduate Studies, Nursing, Medicine, Pharmacy, and Social Work. Attendees can interact with unique artifacts that trace UMB's 19th-century origins.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF DENTISTRY

The Dr. Samuel D. Harris National Museum of Dentistry inspires the future of oral health by celebrating the heritage of the dental profession with two floors of exhibit space that explore the people, cultures, and innovations that shape our smiles.

NURSING LIVING HISTORY MUSEUM

Established in 1999, this is the state of Maryland's only museum dedicated to nursing, a space where you can learn about the profession's vital role and evolving story through exhibits that honor nurses past and present.

WESTMINSTER HALL AND BURYING GROUND

Where Baltimore's history rests in peace! Walk among the final resting places of famous political and military figures, as well as legendary author and poet Edgar Allan Poe, in one of the city of Baltimore's oldest cemeteries.
