2026-2027 MHEC Pledge to Remain Drug Free

Deadline to submit: November 25, 2026

In accordance with § 18-111 of the Maryland Education Article, as a condition of receiving student financial assistance awarded by the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC), each recipient of State financial aid shall sign a statement pledging to remain drug free. For any decentralized programs whereby the institution awards the student directly, including the Campus- Based Educational Assistance Grant, the Graduate and Professional Scholarship, and the Part-Time Grant, each award recipient must sign a pledge to remain drug free in order to receive the State award. UMB is required to have the student's written consent to this statement prior to the issuance of the award.
