Position Type: Federal Work Study

Title: Development Coordinator

Department: Office of Development & Alumni Relations

Hours: Between 10-20 hours per week

Timeframe: Summer Semester 2024, Fall Semester 2024, and/or Spring Semester 2025

Description:

The Office of Development & Alumni Relations is seeking a Development Coordinator for either or both semesters of the 2024-2025 academic year. Students must have work study funding to be eligible for this position. Responsibilities may be fulfilled through a hybrid work set up, but this position will be required to work on-campus for part of the scheduled hours each week.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assist with managing class action and biographical updates by researching, editing, organizing and sharing information updates with law school and campus colleagues
- Track alumni volunteer activity and manage requests for thank you gifts
- Help to manage event registration lists and attendance tracking by organizing Excel spreadsheets, looking up constituent IDs, and finalizing reports
- Assist with event outreach, specifically around Alumni Weekend and regional events, by reviewing and updating class and geographical lists, making phone calls, sending emails, and registering attendees
- Assist with event preparation, including with briefings, name tags, reminders, etc.
- Support stewardship communications, such as thank you and congratulatory notes, fund updates, and impact reports
- Create and organize materials for Alumni Board and Board of Visitors meetings
- Engage in basic development research to update employment and contact information
- Assist with mailings, calling and texting campaigns, special events, and other office-wide activities as necessary

Required Skills and Qualifications:

- Excellent writing and proofreading skills
- Strong project management skills and the ability to work independently and efficiently when needed
- Knowledgeable with Microsoft 365 software, specifically Excel and Word
- Strong communication and customer service skills
- Currently enrolled as a student in the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law

About the Office of Development and Alumni Relations:

As our law students graduate and go on with their professional lives, the Office of Development & Alumni Relations makes connections that remain for life. We build support for the teaching, research and public service missions of the School of Law by strengthening connections between the law school, its alumni, students, and faculty through special events and academic programs, and by securing gifts of volunteer time and financial resources to help the Law School achieve its goals.
