Financial Aid Information for MS-PALLIATIVE CARE PROGRAM

Cost of Attendance (COA) An institution’s COA is an estimate of what it may cost for you to live and attend your program during the academic year. You may review the components of a COA here or visit your SURFS account to view your COA.	Expected Family Contribution (EFC) Despite its name, the EFC does not indicate how much a student will have to pay out of pocket to attend. It is primarily used as an indicator of financial need.	Financial Need A student’s financial need is determined by calculating the difference between the Cost of Attendance (COA) and the Expected Family Contribution (EFC).
Loan Types and Outside Aid Loans are funds that must be paid back. Loans available to MS-Palliative Care students include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unsubsidized Loans • Grad PLUS Loans • Private Student Loans– May be available to students not eligible for federal funds. Students must find and apply with participating private student loan lender. Students are responsible for notifying our office of outside scholarships/aid. We reserve the right to adjust awards as we receive new information.	Scholarships Unlike loans, scholarships and grants do not need to be paid back. Please visit the link(s) below to seek scholarship information if you are considered a Maryland Resident with in-state tuition: (Maryland Residents only) Maryland Higher Education Commission	Federal Work-Study (FWS) Federal Work-Study (FWS) is a federal need-based grant awarded to financially eligible students based on the information listed on submitted FAFSA's. It is considered earning potential and not a lump sum payment. For more information and resources, please email FWS@UMARYLAND.EDU or visit the FWS website.
