Anticipated Review Timeline Delays

Please be advised that review and processing timelines may be extended. We appreciate your understanding as we work diligently to maintain the quality and integrity of our review processes while supporting the needs of the research community.

Welcoming the new HRPP Executive Director!

We are pleased to welcome Daniela Radu as the new Executive Director of the University of Maryland, Baltimore Human Research Protections Program (HRPP)!

Daniela brings extensive experience in human subjects protections, research compliance, IRB operations, research integrity, research privacy, and conflict of interest oversight, along with international policy and compliance leadership experience.

Please join us in welcoming Daniela to UMB.

CALL FOR IRB MEMBERS

The UMB IRB is seeking new membership.

Prior IRB experience is not necessary. Full orientation and training will be provided.

If you or someone you know is interested in joining UMB's IRB, please email HRPO@umaryland.edu with the subject "IRB Volunteer".
