Recruitment and Selection

1000.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE
This policy provides a framework for employee recruiting efforts and identifying job-related standards for the selection process. This policy supplements the rules that govern employment practices for the University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Department and that are promulgated and maintained by the Human Resource Services.

1000.2 POLICY
In accordance with applicable federal, state, and local law, the University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Department provides equal opportunities for applicants and employees regardless of actual or perceived race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, pregnancy, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, and any other classification or status protected by law. The Department does not show partiality or grant any special status to any applicant, employee, or group of employees unless otherwise required by law.

The Department will recruit and hire only those individuals who demonstrate a commitment to service and who possess the traits and characteristics that reflect personal integrity and high ethical standards.

1000.3 RECRUITMENT
The Support Services Bureau Commander or designee should employ a comprehensive recruitment and selection strategy to recruit and select employees from a qualified and diverse pool of candidates.

The strategy may include:

(a) Identification of racially and culturally diverse target markets.
(b) Use of marketing strategies to target diverse applicant pools.
(c) Expanded use of technology and maintenance of a strong internet presence. This may include an interactive department website and the use of department-managed social networking sites, if resources permit.
(d) Expanded outreach through partnerships with media, community groups, citizen academies, local colleges, universities, job fairs and the military.
(e) Employee referral and recruitment incentive programs.
(f) Consideration of shared or collaborative regional testing processes.

The Department shall avoid advertising, recruiting and screening practices that tend to stereotype, focus on homogeneous applicant pools or screen applicants in a discriminatory manner.

The Department should strive to facilitate and expedite the screening and testing process, and should periodically inform each candidate of his/her status in the recruiting process.
Recruitment and Selection

1000.4 APPLICATIONS
The UMB Human Resource Services is responsible for receiving and reviewing for accuracy, completeness and eligibility of all police officer applications. If a minor deficiency (e.g., applicant forgot to provide a copy of required documentation, a block on the application is not filled-in or checked) exists in the application, the applicant will be allowed to correct the deficiency prior to the testing or interview process.

1000.5 SELECTION PROCESS
The Department shall actively strive to identify a diverse group of candidates who have in some manner distinguished themselves as being outstanding prospects. Minimally, the Department should employ a comprehensive screening, background investigation, and selection process that assesses cognitive and physical abilities and includes review and verification of the following:

(a) A comprehensive application for employment (including previous employment, references, current and prior addresses, education, military record)
(b) Driving record
(c) Reference checks
(d) Employment eligibility, including U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Employment Eligibility Verification Form I-9 and acceptable identity and employment authorization documents. This required documentation should not be requested until a candidate is hired. This does not prohibit obtaining documents required for other purposes.
(e) Information obtained from public internet sites
(f) Financial history consistent with the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) (15 USC § 1681 et seq.)
(g) Local, state, and federal criminal history record checks
(h) Polygraph or voice stress analyzer (VSA) examination (when legally permissible)
(i) Medical and psychological examination (may only be given after a conditional offer of employment)
(j) Review board or selection committee assessment

1000.5.1 CRIMINAL HISTORY INQUIRIES
The Support Services Bureau Commander or designee should establish procedures to ensure that inquiries into the criminal history of applicants conform to the requirements of Md. Code LE § 3-1501 et seq.

1000.6 BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION
Every candidate shall undergo a thorough background investigation to verify his/her personal integrity and high ethical standards, and to identify any past behavior that may be indicative of the candidate’s unsuitability to perform duties relevant to the operation of the University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Department.
The Chief of Police or designee shall ensure that background investigations for candidates for officer include (COMAR 12.04.01.05):

(a) A check of military records, when applicable, including obtaining a complete copy of the candidate’s discharge document.

(b) A report from a credit agency regarding the candidate’s current and past credit history.

(c) An investigation of the prior use of controlled dangerous substances, narcotic drugs, and marijuana by the candidate as specified under COMAR 12.04.01.16.

(d) An examination of school records or interviews with school officials if the candidate attended school within the last five years.

(e) Interviews of:
   1. Personal references furnished by the candidate.
   2. Neighbors of the candidate within the past five years.
   3. Current and past employers within the last five years.
   4. Coworkers within the last five years.

The Chief of Police or designee shall maintain a record of the background investigation on each candidate hired as an officer by this department. The results of the investigation shall be recorded on an Application for Certification (AFC), including any supplemental information, as specified in COMAR 12.04.01.01 and submitted to the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commission (MPCTC). The MPCTC may refuse to certify the candidate based upon supplemental information (COMAR 12.04.01.05).

1000.6.1 NOTICES
Background investigators shall ensure that investigations are conducted and notices provided in accordance with the requirements of the FCRA (15 USC § 1681d).

1000.6.2 STATE NOTICES
The Chief of Police or designee shall complete an AFC for an officer hired by this department. The Chief of Police or designee is responsible for (COMAR 12.04.01.02):

(a) Accurately completing the AFC.

(b) Submitting the AFC to the MPCTC (COMAR 12.04.01.08).

(c) Signing the AFC to certify that the MPCTC’s selection standards have been met.

(d) Including on the AFC the:
   1. Date the candidate completed the certification requirements.
   2. Department telephone number for the Chief of Police.

(e) Submitting the AFC to the MPCTC if he/she has, within one year before submitting the AFC:
   1. Completed or verified for the candidate each of the selection standards as required under COMAR 12.04.01.04 or COMAR 12.04.01.08.
2. Determined that the candidate meets each of the selection standards under COMAR 12.04.01.04 or COMAR 12.04.01.08.

False or misrepresented information on the AFC is a basis for rejection or revocation of certification by the MPCTC and may be the basis for separate administrative or legal action (COMAR 12.04.01.02).

1000.6.3 REVIEW OF SOCIAL MEDIA SITES
Due to the potential for accessing unsubstantiated, private, or protected information, the Support Services Bureau Commander or designee shall not require candidates to provide passwords, account information, or access to password-protected social media accounts (Md. Code LE § 3-712).

The Support Services Bureau Commander or designee should consider utilizing the services of an appropriately trained and experienced third party to conduct open source, internet-based searches and/or review information from social media sites to ensure that:

(a) The legal rights of candidates are protected.
(b) Material and information to be considered are verified, accurate, and validated.
(c) The Department fully complies with applicable privacy protections and local, state, and federal law.

Regardless of whether a third party is used, the Support Services Bureau Commander or designee should ensure that potentially impermissible information is not available to any person involved in the candidate selection process.

1000.6.4 INTERVIEWS
Background investigation interviews may be conducted (COMAR 12.04.01.05):

(a) In person.
   1. A personal interview conducted as part of a background investigation is considered appropriate when an interviewee is available within 50 miles of this department.

(b) By telephone.

(c) By using a designated department form and questionnaire that the interviewer or individual interviewed is required to complete.

(d) By using other lawful methods designed to elicit useful information from an individual concerning the candidate.

Personal references and others residing outside the state may be contacted by correspondence or telephone (COMAR 12.04.01.05).

1000.6.5 OUT-OF-STATE CANDIDATES
When the candidate for officer has resided or been employed out-of-state, the background investigation may be performed by an appropriate law enforcement agency or a legitimate private background investigation agency in the area where the candidate lived or worked (COMAR 12.04.01.05).

If a candidate has been employed as a police officer for the federal government or in another state, the Chief of Police or designee shall:

(a) Report the law enforcement agency's name and jurisdiction to the MPTSC.
(b) Forward any supplemental information obtained from the previous out-of-state law enforcement agency or from any other source.

1000.6.6 INVESTIGATIONS BY OTHER AGENCIES
The Department may authorize another individual, office or agency to conduct a background investigation (COMAR 12.04.01.05).

The Maryland State Police or a local law enforcement agency may assist this department in a background investigation.

1000.6.7 CRIMINAL RECORD CHECKS AND FINGERPRINTS
The Department shall fingerprint candidates for officer and submit the fingerprints to the appropriate local, state, and national agencies for a search of criminal records (COMAR 12.04.01.05).

1000.6.8 DOCUMENTING AND REPORTING
The background investigator shall summarize the results of the background investigation in a report that includes sufficient information to allow the reviewing authority to decide whether to extend a conditional offer of employment. The report shall not include any information that is prohibited from use, including that from social media sites, in making employment decisions. The report and all supporting documentation shall be included in the candidate’s background investigation file.

1000.6.9 RECORDS RETENTION
The background report and all supporting documentation shall be maintained in accordance with the established records retention schedule.

1000.7 DISQUALIFICATION GUIDELINES
As a general rule, performance indicators and candidate information and records shall be evaluated by considering the candidate as a whole, and taking into consideration the following:

- Age at the time the behavior occurred
- Passage of time
- Patterns of past behavior
- Severity of behavior
- Probable consequences if past behavior is repeated or made public
- Likelihood of recurrence
Relevance of past behavior to public safety employment
Aggravating and mitigating factors
Other relevant considerations

A candidate’s qualifications will be assessed on a case-by-case basis, using a totality-of-the-circumstances framework.

1000.8 EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS
All candidates shall meet the minimum standards required by state law. Candidates will be evaluated based on merit, ability, competence, and experience, in accordance with the high standards of integrity and ethics valued by the Department and the community.

Validated, job-related, and nondiscriminatory employment standards shall be established for each job classification and shall minimally identify the training, abilities, knowledge, and skills required to perform the position’s essential duties in a satisfactory manner. Each standard should include performance indicators for candidate evaluation. The Human Resource Services should maintain validated standards for all positions.

1000.8.1 STANDARDS FOR OFFICERS
Candidates for certification as an officer shall meet the following MPTSC minimum standards (COMAR 12.04.01.04):

(a) Be 21 years old or older.
(b) Be a United States citizen and submit documents supporting a claim of citizenship to this department.
   1. Candidates may be permanent legal residents if they are honorably discharged veterans of the United States armed forces and have applied to obtain United States citizenship, provided that their application for citizenship must be ultimately approved (Md. Code PS § 3-209).
(c) Possess and submit either of the following:
   1. A high school diploma issued by a high school or recognized by the State Board of Education.
   2. A General Education Development (GED) certificate or diploma issued by Maryland or another state or recognized by the State Board of Education.
      (a) A college degree may be accepted in place of high school diploma or GED requirements.
      (b) In the absence of a copy of a diploma, the Chief of Police may accept a certified transcript indicating that a candidate successfully completed the requirements for graduation from a high school or college.
(d) Be eligible under federal and Maryland law to possess and use a handgun.
Recruitment and Selection

(e) Be of good moral character as determined by a thorough background investigation and criminal history investigation, including a fingerprint check, according to the requirements under COMAR 12.04.01.05.

(f) Be free from any physical, emotional, or mental condition which might adversely affect the exercise of police powers.

1. Before a candidate may be selected for a position as an officer, he/she shall be examined by a licensed, trained, and qualified medical doctor, and receive a recommendation from the medical doctor indicating that he/she is physically able to:
   (a) Perform the duties of an officer as determined by this department.
   (b) Participate in the entrance-level training program.

2. Before a candidate may be selected for a position as an officer, he/she shall undergo a psychological evaluation by an appropriately certified mental health professional, and receive a positive recommendation from the mental health professional indicating:
   (a) Emotional and mental fitness.
   (b) Ability to perform the duties of an officer as determined by this department.

(g) Possess a valid driver's license

(h) Participate in an interview with the Chief of Police or the authorized designee.

(i) Submit to a screening for controlled dangerous substances, narcotic drugs, and marijuana according to procedures outlined in COMAR 12.04.01.15.

The Chief of Police may establish more restrictive standards than those of the MPCTC for selection of a candidate for the position of officer.

The Chief of Police may submit a request for a waiver of MPCTC selection standards in accordance with the requirements of COMAR 12.04.01.14.

1000.9 PROBATIONARY PERIODS

The Support Services Bureau Commander or designee shall coordinate with the Human Resource Services to identify positions subject to probationary periods and procedures for:

(a) Appraising performance during probation.
(b) Assessing the level of performance required to complete probation.
(c) Extending probation.
(d) Documenting successful or unsuccessful completion of probation.
